Dr. J. Bernard Machen

Bernie Machen was appointed Florida’s 11th president in January, 2004. During his tenure, he has expanded the university’s research and scholarship endeavors, elevated its educational programs and increased access to students from a diversity of economic backgrounds – all while shepherding the university through an era of growing financial challenges.

Under President Machen’s leadership, UF’s annual research funding has soared to $619 million. He has presided over a major expansion of research facilities, grown UF’s noted technology commercialization enterprise, and led the Florida Tomorrow capital campaign, a five-year effort that is nearing its goal of $1.5 billion by 2012.

A longtime advocate for giving students from all walks of life the chance to attend college, Dr. Machen in 2005 pioneered the Florida Opportunity Scholars program, which pays tuition and room and board for students from disadvantaged backgrounds. Nearly 2,000 students have attended UF as recipients of the scholarship.

Like other universities nationwide, UF has faced several years of declining state support. Dr. Machen has led Florida’s 11 public universities’ response to these declines, successfully advocating lawmakers to step up statewide tuition increases while allowing universities greater flexibility in setting their own tuition. President Machen also launched a university-wide sustainability campaign considered a model in public higher education.

Prior to his appointment at UF, Dr. Machen served for six years as president of the University of Utah. His previous positions include provost and executive vice president for academic affairs at the University of Michigan; dean of dentistry at the University of Michigan and associate dean at the University of North Carolina School of Dentistry.

A member of the Florida Council of 100, he has held several prominent positions in statewide and national higher education leadership – including as a member of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board and the Board of Directors for the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City. He earned his doctor of dental surgery from St. Louis University and doctorate in educational psychology from the University of Iowa, both of which have honored him with distinguished alumnus awards.

He and his wife, Chris, a former nurse who has been heavily involved in the university’s environmental initiatives, have three children and four grandchildren.
Greetings from the President

On behalf of the University of Florida administration, faculty and staff, I want to extend my most heartfelt congratulations to you, the Class of 2012, and to your family and friends. Today’s ceremony celebrates your hard work and achievement in completing a demanding and rigorous course of study at this great public research university. You should be proud, as should all who supported and assisted you in your efforts.

This is a day of celebration, but it also is a day of reflection on what lies ahead. Whatever path you choose, I am confident you have acquired the skills you need to be a success. Whether you pursue a career in public service, private industry, academe, the sciences or the arts, I know you will make a difference.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure to host you during your academic career. You have learned much, and this university has benefited in turn from your presence. I hope you will recall your years here with a sense that they were both happy and productive. As a member of UF’s distinguished alumni, you will always be cherished at the University of Florida.

Good luck and best wishes!

J. Bernard Machen

The University of Florida

The University of Florida traces its origins to the establishment of the East Florida Seminary, Florida’s first institution of higher learning, in 1853. After the Civil War, the seminary was moved to Gainesville. It was consolidated with the state’s land-grant Florida Agricultural College, then in Lake City, to become the University of Florida in 1906. Until 1947, UF was designated for men and was one of only three state universities. Today, with more than 50,000 students, the University of Florida is among the most populous universities in the nation.

UF, one of the largest of Florida’s 11 state universities, is governed by the State Board of Education, the Florida Board of Governors and the University of Florida Board of Trustees.

The University of Florida joined the ranks of North America’s best graduate research institutions with its admission in 1985 to the Association of American Universities, the most prestigious organization in higher education. The university also has been recognized by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education as one of the nation’s leading research universities.

The University of Florida encompasses 16 colleges, five schools and more than 100 interdisciplinary research and education centers, bureaus and institutes. Students can choose majors from 100 undergraduate degree programs, approximately 200 graduate programs and 30 combined degree programs. Professional postbaccalaureate degrees are offered in dentistry, law, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, physical therapy and veterinary medicine. More than 32,000 people participate annually in noncredit courses, conferences, workshops, institutes and seminars.

The university employs more than 5,000 faculty members and approximately 8,400 administrative, professional and support staff. With operations in more than 900 buildings on 2,000 acres, the university has research centers, extension operations, clinics and/or other facilities and affiliates in every county in Florida.

Distinguished Alumna Award

Delores Lastinger

Former high school teacher Delores Lastinger, who earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from the University of Florida in 1965, has always displayed a deep commitment to education, as evidenced by a $4 million endowment that she and her husband, Allen, created in 2002 to establish the Lastinger Center for Learning at UF's College of Education.

The renowned center reflects the Lastingers’ vision of practical professional development that improves teacher practice and student learning. Little did they know that the center would grow in a few short years to link some 300 partnering high-poverty schools across Florida with UF research scholars from multiple disciplines, forming powerful learning communities in support of school improvement, teacher advancement and children’s early learning and healthy development. The Lastingers are active board members who continuously contribute to the center’s success.

“Close to 10 years ago, Allen and Delores, who’ve worked hard in life, found themselves in a position to give something back,” says Lastinger Center Director Don Pemberton. “They invested in education and planted a seed here in the College of Education. That seed has grown and grown and grown.”

The Lastingers’ endowment is the largest gift ever made to the College of Education.

Ms. Lastinger is vice president of the Lastinger Family Foundation and her devotion to education and charitable work has been a lifelong labor of love. After graduating from UF, she earned a master’s in education administration and supervision from the University of North Florida and taught for many years at Episcopal High School in Jacksonville before having children and moving into high-profile volunteer work and philanthropy.

UF has been the beneficiary of the Lastingers’ generosity on several occasions. They are joint lifetime members of the UF Alumni Association and are members of the President’s Council at the Gold Level, with gifts to the university totaling nearly $7 million. (Allen has bachelor’s and master’s degrees in business administration from UF and is the retired CEO of Barnett Banks.) Ms. Lastinger also serves on the UF Foundation’s leadership gifts council and campaign steering council.

Besides the center, the Lastingers have made substantial donations to UF’s archeology program, the John V. Lombardi Scholarship Program, the UF 150th Anniversary Cultural Plaza Endowment-UF Performing Arts, and the David Lawrence Jr. Endowed Chair in Early Childhood Studies (in the UF College of Education.)

Ms. Lastinger also is known for her tremendous contributions to the Northeast Florida community. She and Allen were longtime Jacksonville residents until they moved to St. Augustine in 2001 when Mr. Lastinger retired. They co-chaired a successful $15 million capital campaign for Jacksonville Episcopal High, where Ms. Lastinger serves on the board of trustees. She served on the board of directors for Leadership Jacksonville and developed the group’s annual fundraising program for its Youth Jacksonville Program, which supports more than 800 high school students. She has held board leadership positions for the Hubbard House (a domestic violence shelter), Hope Haven Children’s Clinic and Family Center and other charities.

The Lastingers heavily support the Community Hospice of Northeast Florida. Ms. Lastinger has volunteered for many years at the inpatient hospice center in St. Augustine and helped the organization establish its pediatric hospice program. She also is a trustee of Flagler College in St. Augustine and the Lastingers have donated $500,000 to help preserve the college’s historic buildings.
Kenneth R. and Linda C. McGurn

Ken and Linda McGurn own McGurn Investment Company and have been instrumental in the redevelopment of downtown Gainesville. They have received more than 60 local, state and national awards for their projects, including a HUD National Certificate of Merit. Their projects include dozens of new and renovated buildings including the Opera House, which was placed on the National Register of Historic Places and the Sun Center which houses the Downtown Tech Center. There, the McGurns provide office space, mentoring and financing for startup companies, which have helped create dozens of high tech jobs and a thriving tech community in downtown Gainesville.

They are heavily involved in sustainable development and have invested in more than 500,000 watts of solar voltaic electrical generating capacity. They have been recognized for their environmental work including being the Alachua County Conservation Stewards of the Year, receiving a Sustainable Florida Award presented by Governor Jeb Bush and recognition by the National Alliance to Save Energy.

They have established two major endowments at the University of Florida including one in support of the Warrington College of Business to be used at the Dean’s discretion. Both serve on the dean’s Advisory Board and the UF Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation Advisory Board.

Ms. McGurn is a past chair of the UF Foundation Board of Directors and past chair of the Foundation Audit Committee. She is co-chair of UF Women, which works to engage women in leadership and philanthropy at UF. She also was a member of the Steering Committee for UF’s Fisher School of Accounting. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in accounting and a Juris Doctor from the University of Florida.

Dr. McGurn is past chair of the Florida Museum of Natural History and the UF Bergstrom Center for Real Estate Studies. He has a Ph.D. in Real Estate, Finance and Economics, a B.S.B.A. in Management and a Masters in Real Estate and Urban Land Planning, all from UF.

Both have served on numerous local and state volunteer boards. At various times, both have been honored by the Chamber of Commerce for their volunteer work, Ms. McGurn most recently for her work as co-chair of Innovation Gainesville which is dedicated to expanding the high tech industry in Gainesville. She has been involved in Planned Parenthood since attending UF - serving on the board and as chair for several years. She was recently named a Santa Fe College Woman of Distinction. Governor Lawton Childs recognized her as One of Florida’s Finest for her many efforts to better the community and the state. She is a member of Leadership Florida Class XVII. She serves on the board of Florida Capital Bank. She is an attorney and CPA.

Dr. McGurn has chaired many organizations including, the national award-winning Alachua-Bradford County Work Force Board, Downtown Redevelopment Agency, County Housing Finance Authority, State Home Builders PAC, Apartment Association and Gold Standard Multimedia, Inc. as well as chairing committees in the Plan to End Homelessness, the Early Learning Coalition and arts organizations. He is a state licensed General Contractor, Community Association Manager and real estate Broker.

Dr. McGurn is an Army Viet Nam veteran who served on active duty for 7 years as a paratrooper, jungle expert and spy. He was probably the youngest captain in the military at age 22. He met Linda on a blind date in 1971 in North Carolina and convinced her to come to Florida to be his wife and a Gator!
Awards to Outstanding Scholars

The Selection Committee for Outstanding Scholars considers grade point average, curriculum, academic awards, research projects or honors thesis. Four-year scholars must have started as freshmen at UF and have no more than minimal work at other institutions.

Sierra J. Seaman
Four-Year Scholar and Outstanding Female Leader

During her time at the University of Florida, Sierra J. Seaman strived to leave her mark as a scholar, community activist, compassionate humanitarian and student leader. She has maintained a 4.0 GPA with a double major in biology and psychology.

Gaining valuable experience with two internships, Ms. Seaman shadowed an obstetrician in Panama City, observing procedures in the clinic and operating room. She gained similar experience shadowing a plastic surgeon in Gainesville.

Ms. Seaman, whose hometown is Panama City, strives beyond her own goals to inspire success in others. As an Honors Ambassador, she worked to recruit and mentor present and future honors students. She also served as president of the Honors Program at UF, as well as president of the Hume Honors Residence Hall Area Government.

Ms. Seaman was chosen as one of 25 students for the May 2010 J. Wayne Reitz Scholars program, an honor awarded to the top student leaders on campus. She also was recognized as an Anderson Scholar with the highest distinction.

In the community, Ms. Seaman volunteers at Shands Children’s Hospital in the neonatal intensive care unit and at Baby Gators Research and Development Center.

Ms. Seaman has shown that incredible passion, determination and time management can lead to a full student experience of scholarship and leadership. She plans to enroll in medical school either at the University of Florida or University of Virginia, where she wants to study craniofacial reconstructive plastic surgery. She also hopes to spend a year serving with Doctors Without Borders.

Nicholas B. Abt
Four-Year Scholar

As an Outstanding Four-Year Scholar, Nicholas B. Abt exemplifies enthusiasm and dedication. He is a 4.0 student with majors in microbiology and cell science.

He has had considerable success in the field of science, where he has held several internships and presented his research at multiple conferences, including at the Morning Rounds Summer Lecture Series for the National Institutes of Health (NIH). His internships include the Vanderbilt Summer Science Academy and the National Institutes of Health Summer Internship Program.

His undergraduate research predicted the true maximal oxygen uptake of firefighters in order to reduce the risk for acute cardiovascular disease while on duty. The research is pending publication.

Mr. Abt, whose hometown is Davie, has volunteered extensively both at the university and in the community. He volunteers in the Neurosurgical Specialties Clinic at Shands Hospital and was service chair of Heal the World. He traveled to Nicaragua with Recurso, where he raised more than $10,000 and helped build a school. The funds not only paid for the construction but also covered a year’s salary for a Nicaraguan teacher.

One particular organization he is passionate about is Camp Boggy Creek, where he works as a full-time camp counselor during the summer, helping chronically ill children. Through Camp Boggy Creek alone, he has earned more than 504 volunteer hours. He said that his time at the camp “evoked so many different emotions from me that it has shaped my view of human compassion.”

Mr. Abt has earned several awards and recognitions, including an induction into the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He is an Anderson Scholar of highest distinction.

He feels that through research, teaching and clinical care, he will become a well-rounded physician and that education can help improve society’s shortcomings. Mr. Abt will continue his education at Johns Hopkins medical school in the fall.
Awards to Outstanding Leaders

The Selection Committee for Outstanding Graduating Student Leaders considers the quality and scope of leadership activities, universitywide leadership, experience, special awards, recognition and recommendations of faculty, staff and students.

Beatriz M. Hernandez
Outstanding Female Leader

Beatriz M. Hernandez, graduating with a double major in family, youth and community sciences, and political science, is recognized as an Outstanding Female Leader for her contribution to the student body and community, specifically students and others in marginalized communities.

Ms. Hernandez's leadership at UF has taught her to balance her academic responsibility with her service to others, a balance she will continue for the rest of her life. She recognizes her growth and success as a result of her family’s selflessness and those who have invested in her development at the university.

While Ms. Hernandez felt lost as a freshman, she discovered her interest in service as a sophomore and became a peer mentor for the Florida Opportunity Scholarship Program. FOS is a scholarship and support program for 1,400 first-generation and low-income undergraduate students.

As the student assistant for the FOS director, she has been described by the director as one who takes initiative and provides forethought on projects. She has made a significant impact on the program during the past three years, her director said, as Ms. Hernandez works with 60 peer mentors as their senior mentor, and also about 400 first-year scholars.

Ms. Hernandez was chosen as one of 25 J. Wayne Reitz Scholars. In spring 2011, she studied abroad in the United Kingdom at the University of Leicester. She was eager to see how social issues were addressed in other parts of the world, and to share her education with her peers while learning from them, too.

Ms. Hernandez also served the community in a variety of positions, including as a tutor at the Alachua County Sheriff’s Office at-risk youth center.

Ms. Hernandez, from Miami, is pursuing a degree in law that will allow her to make a difference in low-income communities, especially in the education system and its youth.

Dayme Sanchez
Outstanding Female Leader

In addition to being named an Outstanding Female Leader, Dayme Sanchez has achieved a 4.0 grade point average on her way to graduating with a bachelor's degree in economics and political science with a minor in history.

During her time at UF, Ms. Sanchez has held many leadership roles in different organizations. Most recently, she served as the president of Pi Sigma Alpha, the National Political Science Honor Society. As president, Ms. Sanchez wrote grants to receive funding for various events, organized an informational trip to Tallahassee for members to understand the political process, and provided resources for political science students to gain professional experience. Prior to being president, she served as vice president and public relations director for the honor society.

Ms. Sanchez is the co-founder and head editor of The Political Voice Newsletter, which allows undergraduate political science students to publish politically oriented essays and articles. Ms. Sanchez is also an active member of the Pre-Legal Honor Society where she wrote and published The Litigator, the organization’s newsletter. She also served as the historian and advertising director.

Ms. Sanchez is a student representative for the Florida Opportunity Scholar program. She speaks with donors about the importance for first-generation students to have the opportunity to attend college.

Ms. Sanchez, whose hometown is Miami, is committed to the betterment of society, illustrated in her extensive community service. She is the project manager for Cell Phones for Cuba, for which she collected more than 1,000 cellphones to foster communication among Cuban youth. She also was a Relay for Life coordinator for the pre-law team. She raised more than $1,000 to benefit the American Cancer Society.

To recognize her academic excellence, Ms. Sanchez was named an Anderson Scholar of highest distinction and also was chosen as the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences’ Head of CLAS in 2011.

Ms. Sanchez will begin pursuing a degree in public interest law at Harvard University this fall.
Awards to Outstanding Leaders

The Selection Committee for Outstanding Graduating Student Leaders considers the quality and scope of leadership activities, universitywide leadership, experience, special awards, recognition and recommendations of faculty, staff and students.

Justin Fisch
Outstanding Male Leader

Justin Fisch, graduating with a triple major in political science, geography and sustainability studies and two minors in Latin American studies and international studies in agriculture and life sciences, is the definition of a Global Gator.

Mr. Fisch grew up in Florida and Quebec. He speaks four languages: French and English fluently; Spanish and Portuguese at an intermediate level. He is learning Mandarin Chinese and Korean.

He has studied and volunteered extensively in South America and Asia, as well as the United States.

In Nicaragua, he was a gear manager and first aid director, teaching CPR and leading more than 20 treks through the country. Last fall, he went to Brazil as a Portuguese research scholar. In summer 2010, he was one of 36 students chosen to study on a full scholarship in Taiwan by its ministry of education. The following summer, he was awarded a U.S. Department of State full scholarship to study Korean language, culture and music at Chonbuk National University in Korea.

Mr. Fisch spent the spring of 2010 participating in a Tallahassee internship program, where he was one of 60 students chosen to join a four-week legal program. While there, he placed first in the oral argument debate.

As director of the Travel and Recreation Program, or TRiP, Mr. Fisch increased leader training, created strict gear-replacement schedules and improved other procedures. As a result, 33 percent more outings were led safely. Mr. Fisch also increased the group’s collaboration, working with Florida Alternative Breaks on an environmental preservation trip, and leading outings for inner city children in Gainesville.

Mr. Fisch’s passion for the environment goes beyond student organizations. He received a $30,000 grant from the U.S. Forest Service to conduct more than 500 visitors’ surveys along the Florida National Scenic Trail.

In the fall, Mr. Fisch will continue his studies as a law student at McGill University in Montreal, where he will pursue his interest in bringing positive environmental change on a global level.

Anthony E. Reynolds
Outstanding Male Leader

Anthony E. Reynolds, who graduates with degrees in public relations and criminology and law, and a minor in communication studies, is recognized as an Outstanding Male Leader for his role in many student organizations and the student body at-large.

Mr. Reynolds served as Florida’s first Asian-American collegiate student body president. During his term at UF, he established many initiatives including campuswide free printing, the elimination of plastic foam on campus, and vending machines that accept Gator1 ID cards.

He has held numerous leadership positions in various student government agencies, such as the Campus Affairs Cabinet Chair and Students Taking Action Against Racism.

Prior to being elected president, Mr. Reynolds was the student body vice president. He managed and oversaw 23 Cabinet departments and assisted the student body president in the exercise of powers.

In addition, Mr. Reynolds served as the Unite Party president within Student Government. He oversaw all aspects of elections and was directly responsible for his party’s victory.

Mr. Reynolds also was the campus affairs director for the Asian-American Student Union, managing external relations between AASU and UF. He served as an advocate for social and political justice concerns on behalf of the UF Asian-American community.

Mr. Reynolds’ determination to improve society is reflected in his extensive community involvement. He is a knighted member of the Order of the Knights of Rizal, in which he performs community service activities in homeless shelters, orphanages and other events throughout the state. Mr. Reynolds also volunteers for Give Kids the World, helping terminally ill children enjoy an all-expenses-paid vacation to the organization’s mini-theme park.

Mr. Reynolds also served as the philanthropy director for the Building Dreams Foundation. He also advocated and raised money to increase awareness for the need for an Asian-American Cultural Institute at UF.

Mikaela Ruth Moore

Mikaela Moore is honored today as a WCBA Hall of Fame Recipient in recognition of her academic achievement at the University of Florida. Having maintained a 3.94 grade point average, she graduates magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Business Administration, with a specialization in International Business and minors in Mandarin and Public Leadership.

Ms. Moore is a National Merit Scholar and also was recognized as an University of Florida Presidential Achievement Scholar and Warrington College of Business Accenture Scholar. She also is a proud member of the honors college, completing her honors thesis titled “Lowering the Corporate Tax Rate: Is It Enough for Florida?”

In addition to her academic achievements, Ms. Moore has actively served the School of Business as a Warrington Diplomat, a Warrington Welcome Peer Leader, Florida Leadership academy mentor, Business Undergraduate Mentorship Program mentor and a Career and Academic Peer (CAP) mentor. As a student she has completed internships with Google, Inc. and the Florida Senate.

Ms. Moore chose to study abroad twice, in Beijing and Chengdu, China, stating, “If you ever have a strong desire to challenge your emotional strength and mental fortitude, commit to a three month stay in a country that does not use a phonetic alphabet.” Her international experience continued by competing four times on behalf of the school of business in international case competitions. Her service reaches far beyond business, as she served in Florida Alternative Breaks as an immigration law participant, acted as a small group leader for the Young Leaders Conference, served as fundraising director for Gators of Tomorrow, and held the position of president for Omicron Delta Kappa.

After commencement, Ms. Moore will spend a year with Teach for America, led by her belief that “all students, regardless of socioeconomic status or ZIP code, should receive a quality education.” Upon fulfilling her commitment she will return to Google as an account manager with online sales.

Hannah Rebecca Wampole

Hannah Wampole is honored today as a WCBA Hall of Fame Recipient in recognition of her academic achievement at the University of Florida. Having maintained a 3.97 grade point average, she graduates summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, with a major of Marketing. She also has completed minors in Leadership and Entrepreneurship.

Ms. Wampole is an Anderson Scholar with Highest Distinction, and has been inducted into the Order of Omega Greek Honor Society and Beta Gamma Sigma Business Honor Society. Her academic achievements include an honors thesis on the implications of “viral marketing.”

Ms. Wampole has become a passionate member of the Warrington College of Business Administration community. Inspired by upperclassmen who spoke of their college involvement in her Warrington Welcome course, she immediately began her campaign to reach her maximum potential. Her service includes volunteering as a Florida Leadership academy mentor and advisory board member, teaching assistant for principles of marketing, Warrington Welcome Peer Leader, and most recently serving as the president of the Warrington Diplomats.

Across the larger campus community, Ms. Wampole has left her mark. She participated in student government as both the Cabinet Director of Career and Development and the Career Resource Center Director Search Committee. As a member of Zeta Tau Alpha, she chaired the Rituals and Academic Achievement committees. She also completed community service by tutoring and mentoring elementary students in the Prime Time program and serving as the Dance Marathon Marketing Captain, raising funds for the Children’s Miracle Network.

Ms. Wampole has completed internships with TriCoast Worldwide and Altria Sales and Distribution; however, she has not decided which opportunity she will seize upon graduation. She says that she is confident that the knowledge and skills she has acquired throughout her college experience has equipped her for success in her new career.

What Makes a University Great?

Some interesting facts about the University of Florida

- With an enrollment of more than 50,000 students annually, UF is home to 16 colleges and more than 150 research centers and institutes.

- Since 1985, UF has been a member of the Association of American Universities, the prestigious higher-education organization comprising the top 61 public and private institutions in North America.

- UF is consistently ranked among the nation's top universities: No. 19 in U.S. News & World Report "Top Public Universities" (August 2011); No. 2 in Kiplinger's "Best Values in Public Colleges" (2012) and No. 3 in the Princeton Review Best Value Public Colleges (2011).

- UF has 5,409 faculty members with distinguished records in teaching, research and service, including 52 Eminent Scholar chairs and 35 faculty elections to the National Academy of Sciences, Engineering, the Institute of Medicine, or the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

- Approximately 90 percent of incoming freshmen score above the national average on standardized exams. The fall 2011 incoming freshman class had an average 4.16 GPA and 1945 SAT score.

- UF admitted 1,375 International Baccalaureate students — more than any other university in the U.S. — in fall 2011.

- The freshman retention rate of 95 percent is among the highest in the country.

- UF’s four-year graduation rate is 65 percent.

- UF ranked first among AAU public universities in bachelor’s degrees awarded to African-American students in 2009-10 and second among AAU public universities in bachelor’s degrees awarded to Hispanic students in 2009-10.

- UF received more than $619 million in research awards in 2010-11.

- Gatorade®, the world’s most popular sports drink, is just one of hundreds of commercial products resulting from UF research.

- UF’s annual economic impact exceeds $8.76 billion. UF activities generate more than 100,000 statewide jobs, including more than 41,000 university employees and those employed by supporting businesses.

- Every state dollar appropriated to the University of Florida results in a $15 return on investment.
Diplomas will be mailed to the graduate’s permanent home mailing address in late July 2012. The permanent home mailing address can be verified through "My Account" — update my directory profile at my.ufl.edu.

Chain of Office

The chain of office is an ornament worn with the president’s academic regalia symbolizing the authority and responsibilities incumbent with the office. The chain was presented in 2004 during the installation ceremony of President J. Bernard Machen. The medallion centerpiece is a 1.3-carat orange diamond engraved with the portraits, names and service years of the university’s 11 presidents. The Major Analytical Instruments Center at UF used ion beam engraving technology on the medallion. Also on the medallion are three .025-carat blue diamonds placed around the silhouette of the Century Tower and University Auditorium, signifying teaching, research and service. All four diamonds, donated by Gemesis Corp. of Sarasota, Florida, were grown using a process developed and patented by UF’s Department of Materials Science and Engineering.

Academic Mace

“Honoring the Past, Shaping the Future” was the signature of the University of Florida’s sesquicentennial celebration in 2003. It also was the inspiration for the ceremonial mace created and dedicated to mark this historic event. The mace dates back to the Middle Ages and symbolizes strength and authority; each is unique and reflects the values and characteristics of the institution. The university’s chief marshal, who leads all academic processions, carries the mace. Designed and crafted on the University of Florida campus, the mace artfully symbolizes those elements important to the university’s identity and history.

The 70-inch ceremonial staff combines traditional elements with modern styling. The stylized alligator rests on the globe signifying the University of Florida as an adaptable global leader in teaching, research and service. The four pillars supporting the globe represent the four original colleges; Agriculture, Engineering, Liberal Arts and Law. The cone holds the University of Florida Seal and words to the Alma Mater. The staff is carved from native cherry wood. The acorn finial depicts the adage “from tiny acorns mighty oaks do grow,” a commitment to life long learning. The brick pattern on the handle symbolizes higher education tradition and structure. Like the institution it represents, the mace is not static; growth and movement are expressed with loose rings engraved with the names of the university’s presidents and their years in office.

Caps and Gowns, An Explanation

The academic costume worn by graduating students and faculty at today’s commencement ceremonies evolved from a style of dress worn by members of guilds and religious orders in medieval times. The black academic gown is worn by individuals who have earned a degree in higher education. In addition, hoods are worn by graduate degree candidates, but not by undergraduate degree candidates.

At the University of Florida, the lining of the hood has a blue chevron on an orange background to represent the university colors. University faculty members who hold degrees from another college or university wear the colors of their alma mater.

The velvet edging on the academic hood is the color that represents the particular degree held by the wearer. Agricultural and Life Sciences and Forest Resources and Conservation share maize edging; Design, Construction and Planning and Building Construction are blue-violet; Audiology degrees have colonial blue edging; Business Administration and Accounting are drab; Dentistry is lilac; Education is light blue; Engineering degrees are represented by orange edging; Fine Arts degrees have brown edging; Journalism and Communications is garnet; Law is purple; Liberal Arts is white and Liberal Sciences is gold-yellow; Medicine is green; Music is pink; Natural Resources and Environment is antique gold; Pharmacy is olive; Philosophy is royal blue; Public Health degrees have salmon-pink edging; and Rehabilitation Counseling degrees have Nile green edging.

Distinctions among sleeves indicate the type of degree held by the wearer. A long, pointed sleeve indicates a bachelor’s degree, while a long, closed sleeve with a slit near the upper part of the arm designates a master’s degree. A round, open sleeve identifies a doctoral degree.

The doctoral costume also has velvet running on the rest of the gown, including cross bars on the sleeve. The trimming may be black or it may match the color of the velvet hood edging. Colored tassels on the degree candidates’ caps indicate a candidate’s school or college.
Alma Mater

Florida, our Alma Mater
Thy glorious name we praise
All thy loyal sons and daughters
A joyous song shall raise.
Where palm and pine are blowing,
Where southern seas are flowing,
Shine forth thy noble Gothic walls,
Thy lovely vine-clad halls.
Neath the Orange and Blue victorious
Our love shall never fail.
There’s no other name so glorious–
All hail, Florida, Hail!
